Mayor Jones read a statement regarding the stance on food trucks.

Stephanie Kane, Madison County Health Department, spoke regarding the regulations of mobile units and temporary units.

Economic Director, Christy Clark stated she spoke with the local food establishments and all seemed to have the same concerns regarding food trucks.

Abernathy stated he had a concern with zoning and the food trucks.

Kelich questioned the parking issue food trucks may pose.

Resident, Aakami Roberts questioned who would follow up after a permit has been issued.

Mike Retherford questioned if there was a different version of the ordinance being discussed.

Judge, Kyle Noone stated he would like to hear from the brick and mortar directly.

Tin Plate owner, Patrick Rice stated the food trucks bring difference which is great but if not controlled it can be detrimental. There must be some type of structure.

SR 28 owner, Tom Doan stated food trucks are great and no one is putting that down but brick and mortar owners spend countless hours to maintain their establishments. The cost of building upkeep, taxes and supplies far exceed the $100 fee for a food truck. The brick and mortars are what is bringing new people to the city to spend their money. Guidelines and standards must be set for the food trucks to not hinder the brick and mortar that are invested in this city.

Jones stated he would like a committee to look into this further and bring a viable ordinance forward to next meeting. A committee of Abernathy, Noone and Tyner was made along with local brick and mortar to discuss the issue and bring a draft that would be fair to everyone.

Kelich and Watters apologized to brick and mortar for their quick vote at last meeting and not understanding the full weight the ordinance would have on them.

ORDINANCE NO. 2451 – AN ORDINANCE OF THE COMMON COUNCIL OF ELWOOD, INDIANA, ESTABLISHING AN ORDINANCE GOVERNING MOBILE FOOD VENDORS. This ordinance was vetoed by Mayor Jones. There was no motion to override the veto. Ordinance 2451 veto stands.
